NWAC 2024

Northwest Anthropological Conference 2024 Call for Abstracts

The 77th Northwest Anthropological Conference will be held in Portland, Oregon at the University Place Hotel and Conference Center, March 2024. Registration is now open on our website www.nwaconference.com.

Abstracts and Session Proposals are DUE February 9th, 2024
For more details go to https://www.nwaconference.com/nwac

Planning a Session/Event/Panel/Training?
Are you planning on hosting an event at NWAC 2024? We ask that session/event/panel/training organizers collect the necessary information from their co-presenters and submit a session form.

Presenting a Paper?

- We ask that presenters plan to speak for 15 minutes and allow 5 minutes for questions and transition to the next speaker.
- For more information on audio/visual formats, please see the NWAC 2024 FAQ.

Presenting a Poster?

- Pdf format recommended 48" x 36".
- For more information on audio/visual formats, please see the NWAC 2024 FAQ.
- Your poster will be available throughout the duration of the conference and scheduled for a 20-minute Q&A period but you are not required to attend that live.
- Final drafts of posters will be due one week prior to the conference.

Interested in Submitting to the Journal of Northwest Anthropology 2024 Proceedings e-Journal?
The Northwest Anthropological Association (NWAA) has partnered with the Journal of Northwest Anthropology (JONA) to produce the NWAC Proceedings in 2024.

Visit: https://www.northwestanthropology.com/nwac-proceedings to learn more about the submission requirements for 2024. We ask you to consider format requirements now, and work with internal reviewers to approve your paper/poster content for publication. Submissions will be due one week after the conference.