

Northwest Anthropological Conference

Exhibitor Application

Exhibit

The Northwest Anthropological Conference Exhibitor Room is a space for companies, organizations, and conference attendees to learn and network. We would like to welcome publisher of books, journals, and monographs; producers of databases, digital imaging systems, education resources and materials, and field equipment; providers of technical services; and non-profit anthropological/archaeological organizations to utilize the NWAC Exhibit Room. All vendors are expected to abide by the Northwest Anthropological Association's Book Room Policy, which can be found here: <https://www.nwaconference.com/book-room-policy>.

Each exhibit space includes:

- A 6' table with chairs.
- Listing in the NWAC program and website exhibitor directory.
- Company logo in the NWAC program and on the conference website.

Tables are priced according to type of vendor/organization.

| Type                                     | Cost  |
|--|-------|
| Information-only/non-profit organization | Free  |
| Publisher/Academic press                 | $50  |
| Merchandise                              | $150 |
