

PNW 318
14th

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL NORTHWEST ANTHROPOLOGICAL CONFERENCE

University of British Columbia

April 14-15, 1961

PROGRAM

Friday, April 14

8:30 - 9:30 a.m. Registration, Chemistry 400

9:30 a.m. Opening of Sessions,
Greeting and Welcome from Dean Geoffrey C. Andrew,
Deputy to the President, University of B.C.
Appointment of committees to report at dinner Saturday evening.

10:00 - 12:30 p.m. Parallel Session on Archaeology and Cultural Theory.

ARCHAEOLOGY I - Chemistry 216

10:00 a.m. Antiquities Legislation in the United States: Status and Trends, Gifford S. Nickerson, Seattle Pacific College.

10:30 a.m. The Old Cordilleran Culture in the Pacific Northwest,
B. Robert Butler, Idaho State College Museum.

11:00 a.m. The Archaeology of Windust Cave, Harvey S. Rice,
Washington State University.

11:30 a.m. The Archaeology of Wilson Butte Cave, South Central Idaho, Ruth Gruhn, Idaho State College Museum.

12:00 noon The Archaeology of Birch Creek, 1960, Earl H. Swanson,
Idaho State College Museum.

CULTURAL THEORY I - Chemistry 417

10:00 a.m. The Essential Bases of Human Culture, Alan H. Bryan, Harvard University.

10:30 a.m. Culture: As Particle, Wave and Field, Richard D.
Bold and Kenneth Gregerson, Seattle Pacific College.

11:00 a.m. Substitution, a Process in Culture Change, Brian M.
du Toit, University of Oregon.

- 11:30 a.m. Culture Climax: An Ecological Interpretation, Mathew Hale Hill, Washington State University.
- 12:30 - 1:30 p.m. Lunch. Available at: Acadia Camp Dining Room
Common Block Cafeteria
Bus Stop Coffee Shop
Cafeteria, (Auditorium Basement)
Memorial Gym Coffee Shop
- 1:30 - 3:30 p.m. Session on Culture Contact. -- Chemistry 400
- 1:30 p.m. Values and Trans-cultural Evaluations in a Racially Heterogeneous Society, Charles Frantz, Portland State College.
- 2:00 p.m. Indian or Mestizo? A Mesoamerican Problem. Verne F. Ray, University of Washington.
- 2:30 p.m. The Organizational Complex of a Marginal Indian Reserve, David G.J. Mathews, University of Manitoba.
- 3:00 p.m. Social Organization and Modes of Production among the Eskimo of Port Harrison, P.Q., William Willmott, University of British Columbia.
- 3:30 - 5:00 p.m. Reports on programs and activities of departments and institutions represented.
- 5:00 - 6:00 p.m. Dinner. Available at the above mentioned places on campus and at various restaurants in nearby shopping areas.
- 8:00 p.m. Levels of Abstraction in Anthropological Discussion
A lecture by Edmund Leach in Buchanan 106.

Saturday, April 15

- 9:30 - 12:30 a.m. Parallel Sessions on Archaeology and Cultural Theory.
- ARCHAEOLOGY II -- Chemistry 216
- 9:30 a.m. Preliminary Report on Archaeological Excavations at Brooks River, Katmai National Monument, Alaska, in 1960, Don E. Dumond, University of Oregon.
- 10:00 a.m. Archaeology in the Wanapum Reservoir - 1959, Robert Greengo, University of Washington.

- 10:30 a.m. A Report of Excavations in the John Day Dam Reservoir Area, David L. Cole, Museum of Natural History, University of Oregon.
- 11:00 a.m. Excavations at Site DjRi 3, Fraser Canyon, British Columbia, Charles E. Borden, University of British Columbia.
- 11:30 a.m. A Preliminary Report on the Fishtown Site, 45Sk33, Charles Nelson, Washington Archaeological Society.
- 12:00 noon A Preliminary Report on the Snoqualmie River Site, 45Sn100, Delmar Nordquist, Washington Archaeological Society.

CULTURAL THEORY II -- Chemistry 417

- 9:30 a.m. The Selection of Novelties: Some Television Phenomena, Frank Clendenen, University of Oregon.
- 10:00 a.m. The Social Anthropologist as Psychologist: Some Case Studies, Sterling Robbins, University of Washington.
- 10:30 a.m. The Life-History in Behavior Studies, Steven Piker, University of Washington.
- 12:30 - 1:30 p.m. Lunch. Available at same places as Friday.
- 1:30 - 3:00 p.m. Session on Northwest Ethnology.
- 1:30 p.m. An Evolutionary Model and Northwest Coast Culture History, Alan L. Bryan, Harvard University.
- 2:00 p.m. Problems in the Interpretation of Marius Barbeau's Tsimshian Material, Wilson Duff, British Columbia Provincial Museum.
- 2:30 p.m. System Change in Salish Kinship, William W. Elmendorf, Washington State University.
- 3:00 - 5:00 p.m. Informal discussion, running concurrently.

Research Team Structure and Resultant Methodology:
Some Queries Concerning Organization Types and their Results.

Buchanan 2201, Participants: Willis E. Sibley, Washington State University
Kaspar D. Naegele, University of British Columbia, et al.

Northwest Coast and Plateau Culture History:
Research Under Way and Research Potential.
Buchanan 2205, Participants: Wilson Duff, Provincial Museum
Erna Gunther, University of Washington, et al.

6:00 p.m. Cocktails. Faculty Club (Downstairs)

6:30 p.m. Dinner. Faculty Club

Reports of Committees.